- The Book Garden continues to be a successful fundraiser for new books in our library. So far thirteen books have been purchased for our collection through donations. Several books have also been purchased from the Pristine Book Sale, another fundraiser ongoing in the library.
- Preparations are being made for the Library's Tree Festival, Christmas Cheer event and the holiday Cookie Swap. We will also be holding a Tweet for Success social media workshop in December.

Highlights from the Children and Teen Department (submitted by S. Cooper):

Volunteers:

- We had 3 teens visit the library for "Take your kid to work day" on November 5th. They were unable to attend work with their parent(s) and asked to come to the library to work with me instead. I loved this experience and the teens enjoyed themselves as well. Together I taught them how to open the library for the day, we did a little bit of shelf reading as well as weeding, they each made a promotional poster (attached), and helped with the "Skate and Read Storytime" in the morning, as well as helped prepare and conduct the homeschooler's class visit in the afternoon.

Outreach:

- We will be in both the Petawawa Santa Claus Parade (Nov. 16th) and the Pembroke Santa Claus parade (Nov. 29th). Our float will be transformed into "The Polar Express" which the teen volunteers are helping to decorate and put together, as well as walk in the parade.
- We received a thank you from the Petawawa Family Cycle Club (see attached) who has been very supportive over the last year of our bike loan program, and has helped us to spread the word. They also donated two children's bikes this past summer.
- We were featured on Ashley Thompson's morning feature with Star 96 FM. She spoke to Katleyn, Erika and I about services and programs that the library offers. The segments ran on Star 96 throughout the day.

Programs:

fortunate to have such enthusiastic and dedicated teen volunteers. We were able to give some tips to other libraries on how to expand teen services at their libraries.

- We also attended the Fall Children's Services Meeting in Arnprior which gave us some good feedback on the Summer Reading Program as well as some ideas for next year. Once again, this was an awesome opportunity to connect with children's librarians and draw on their experiences.

Other Points of Interest:

- E. Malins regretfully gave her notice of resignation, effective December 19th, 2014. Her husband will be working for Hydro in the Toronto area.
- Our server has died. A new one has been ordered, but until it is replaced, the library's website remains out of date. Up-to-date information is still available on the Event Calendar Tab, on Facebook and on Twitter.
- L. Tweedie has been working on adding useful library information to the "new" Enterprise catalogue site. The search and display functions for books, movies and downloadable eBooks are working beautifully. Click on "SEARCH OUR NEW CATALOGUE" under the "24 HOUR ACCESS TO ..." heading from the library's home page to try it out. Watch for the "New Books" scrolling feature which will be added soon!
- E. Malins and S. King received a "Thank You" card from the Autism Social Group (scanned below).
- K. Schubert received a "Thank You" email from Kiddie Kollege regarding the Daycare Bags program (scanned below).
